Remembering the Times

A series of concentric, glowing blue rings that resemble ripples on water, centered around the number 07. The rings are more densely packed in the center and spread out towards the edges, creating a sense of depth and movement.

Lambuth University

I consider myself an extremely lucky person- I have a loving family, amazing friends, and my life has been enriched by many wonderful experiences. One of the most fulfilling of these experiences had to be my four years at Lambuth University. I cannot think of many universities where the President offers a wake-up call on the first day of classes for freshmen or when an entire class is invited to a professor's home for dinner. I cannot think of many other places where faculty play soccer in the afternoons with students or where everyone knows your name and will shout it across the quad. People lovingly refer to Lambuth as the Lambuth bubble or the Lambuthsphere and, to be honest, I wish this bubble would never pop. We are so lucky to have this place to call home and, most importantly, this place to grow in knowledge and faith and to form memories and friendships that last a lifetime. Sure, I know I'll forget some of my experiences here but it will take a long time. I don't think I will ever forget running out of the chapel on Bid Day, Homecomings, formals, or Orientation but I know some of the details of those experiences will fade with time. The things I know I won't forget are tears of joy and pain cried with close friends, laughter that is so genuine and hearty it makes your stomach ache, quiet time in my apartment, seeing everyone in the cafe at lunch, and driving away from campus that final time. These are moments, though not extravagant, that showed me how lucky I was and how I should enjoy each and every moment I am given because they pass by so quickly.

I thank Lambuth for the many lessons it taught me in the classroom and, more importantly, for the experiences it brought into my life. We have all put our unique stamp on this University and I, in no way doubt, it has done the same for each of us. Thanks to all of you for helping shape my experience and leaving lasting footprints on my heart. And until we meet again may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Emily Garrett

Campus

What an exciting year! The Lambuth community saw many changes that have improved campus life. Here is the year-in-review.

The SOS room had a total make-over and now houses the Career Development Center.

New IDs are made by Emily Bates and Dawn Key.

The new Lambuth IDs give the campus community access to facilities such as the Wellness Center and the computer lab.

Right: The new security office houses state-of-the-art cameras for a safer campus.

The Student Lounge opened its doors in the Spring. Students can now catch up on their favorite shows, have a meeting space or simply have a place to "hang out" and relax.

Jason Zermeno enjoys using one of the new machines in the renovated Wellness Center in the Student Union.

Changes

Circus Arts

Circus Arts offers students many different experiences. On the academic side, students learn about jesters and their role in history as advisors to kings at court, the circus as a historical process and what the circus has meant to different cultures. On the experiential side, students learn how to juggle, ride a unicycle, and make balloon animals.

Who's Who and Honors Day

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities: Each year 25 deserving Lambuth students are elected to Who's Who. Students are selected based on scholarship, leadership, academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship, and service to the university.

Congratulations to the 2006-07 Who's Who and Honors Day recipient!

Honors Day Convocation: Lambuth has a long tradition of honoring its outstanding students, faculty and staff at the Honors Day Convocation. This year's recipients are no exception to the long list of honorees.

This year's All Sing charity event raised over $1,100. Proceeds were donated to the following philanthropies:

Black Student Union

Black Student Union (BSU) works to initiate reforms toward obliterating discriminatory practices on campus. Members promote African American culture and history, act as liaisons in the community, further Christian concepts, and raise awareness of issues affecting all Black people, as well as providing fellowship opportunities for its members.

U.N.I.T.E.D

U.N.I.T.E.D. (Uniting the Nation In Spite of the Ethnical Differences) seeks to uphold the idea that all people are created equal, and emphasizes the belief that we are united under one God. The organization works to create a greater sense of togetherness throughout campus. They also hold an annual International Week during the first week in April.

Student Activities Committee

Student Activities Committee (SAC) provides a balanced schedule of social, cultural, educational, and recreational programs for Lambuth's students. The committee works with national agencies, local organizations, students, faculty, and staff to produce events. SAC sponsored events include: back-to-school bash, coffee house/open mic nights, hypnotists, movies-on-the-green, and spring fling.

A medieval production based on the Chaucers famous novel of memorable tales. A handful of weary travelers including a knight, two thieves, a nun, and the wife of bath, spend an evening over a warm campfire as they share experiences, exaggerations, and complete fabrications about their own personal adventures. Complete with a merry minstrel and his trusty violin, these tales as well as their orators captivate audiences and allow us to take our own imaginations to flight.
This play was performed at a theatre conference in Hawaii.

Canterbury Tales

Brad McElroy, Amy Allen, Katherine Cuypton, Celeste Conroy, Matt Hellams, Jared Canada, Taurean Summers, Christina Torres, Chad Steu, Edna Dinwiddie, Matt Collins, Erad Whittington, Darius Walls, Nick Jared, Cameron Miller

A play remembering the victims of Terrezin (a Jewish ghetto established during the Holocaust) through the character of Raja Englanderova. As the only survivor of all of her loved ones who lived in the camp, her return to Terrezin brings back memories of family, friends, and experiences both pleasant and disheartening. Ultimately, these once suppressed memories allow Raja to experience a sense of purpose and self-renewal as she realizes that the testament of those she loved will always live through her own survival.

Farewell Tiffany... We'll miss you!

Tiffany Padgitt served as Lambuth's Chaplain for three years. During her tenure, Tiffany was involved in all aspects of campus life. Among her many duties, Tiffany advised six student organizations, hosted weekly chapel services, and coordinated the Alternative Spring Break. Tiffany will be ordained as an Elder in the United Methodist Church this summer. She exchanged vows with her fiancé, Marty, on May 19th and will reside with him in Minnesota.

Congratulations Tiffany!
We wish you many blessings!

Phi Sigma Eta, a service organization open to all Christian women, helps members grow in their faith and form relationships with other Christian women through worship, as well as fellowship. Phi Sig promotes leadership and service in the Lambuth community, as well as the greater Jackson area. Some of Phi Sig's annual activities include an initiation lunch, camping trips, and a big/little scavenger hunt.

Catholic Student Union's (CSU) purpose is to provide a spiritual and social support network and fellowship for all Lambuth students interested in Catholicism. Members hold bi-weekly activities, such as service projects, worship services, and retreats. CSU also participates in the "adopt-a-student" program, where local Catholic families "adopt" a club member.

Alpha Omega is a Christian's leadership, service, and accountability group. The purpose of Alpha Omega is to spread God's message by example and to strive to live as men after God's own heart. The society is an international group which focuses on the example of Jesus Christ.

Spring Fun Day!!

The Religious Life Council sponsored its first annual Spring Fun Day! RLC invited student organizations to host a workshop for the children from the Boys and Girls Club. We hope this will become a Lambuth tradition!

STEA celebrated Spring with decorative flowerpots the kids could personalize.

The men of Alpha Omega played games with the kids and celebrated Bible stories.

SGAC welcomed Spring with kites. The kids were able to decorate their own kites.

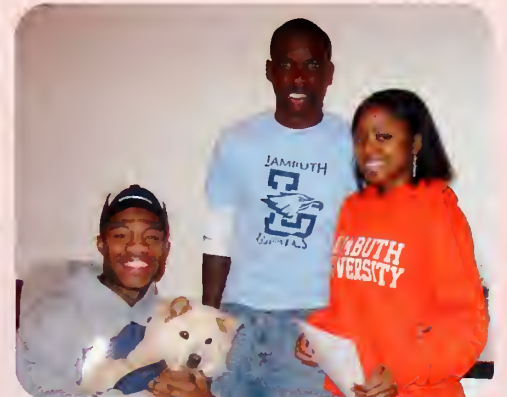

The men's and women's soccer teams helped the kids with their soccer skills.

The basketball team made some winning shots with the kids.

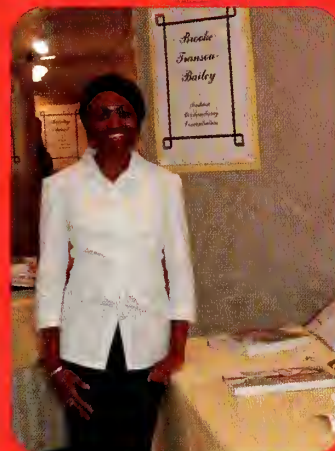

The Sigma Phi Epsilon men brought lots of laughter and smiles to the kids. The children played many rounds of Four Squares.

BSU helped the kids complete an obstacle course.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Sigma Phi Epsilon, the largest undergraduate fraternity in the nation, was founded in 1901. Sigma Phi Epsilon prides itself on "The Balanced Man Project." The project's goal is to teach young men to live virtuously with honesty, to be diligent with studies, and to show brotherly love to everyone. The Tennessee Zeta Chapter opened its doors to the Lambuth community in 1971. The brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon continue to live by the values of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love.

Life in the Residence Halls...

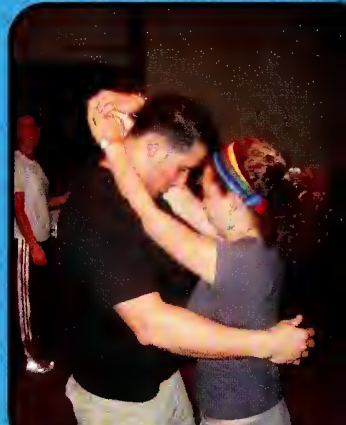

Brett Borm thinks residence life deserves a big thumbs up.

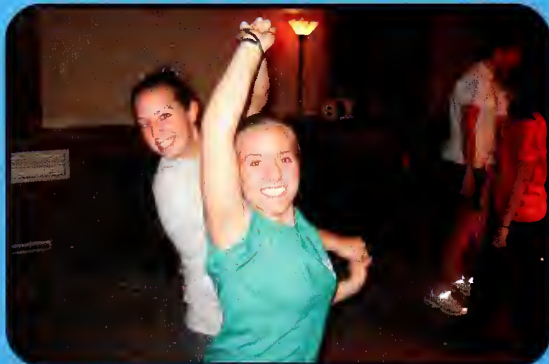

R.A. Tootie Owens loves helping freshmen move in.

Freshmen love figuring out how to do laundry.

Sometimes, you just have to dance!!

Jenny Davis loves salsa dancing in Carney!

After a long night of studying, one just needs a good cup of coffee and friends to clear the mind.

Bo Powers pumps some iron in his room.

Adam Goldie and Cat Underwood love hanging out.

Micah King and R.A. Javier Diaz kill some time playing foosball.

Ryan Nanney working hard!

Looking Towards the Future

Lambuth continues to work hard to improve campus life. Throughout the summer our maintenance staff will be working on renovations in the mailroom, Hyde Hall, the Kappa Sigma house and the installation of new furniture in all the residence halls and the Greek houses. The faculty and staff will also be working over the summer to finalize plans to launch three new programs in the Fall: Social Work, Entertainment/Music Industry Studies, and Teacher Certification in Speech & Hearing Disorder. Lambuth is the first University in Tennessee approved to offer this new program leading to licensure. The Athletic Training Program will also be reactivated in the Fall.

Lambuth has much to celebrate!

Staff

This publication would not have been possible without the help of so many individuals. The yearbook staff would like to thank all that contributed ideas, pictures, time and encouragement. Documenting a year in the life of Lambuth is no easy task but one that has enriched our lives. As the yearbook staff we get to witness the intimate moments shared by groups of people that make up this fascinating and loving community. We feel fortunate to have been given this task and truly hope you have enjoyed seeing Lambuth through our eyes. Until next time, God bless and good-bye!

Sincerely,
The 2007 Lantern Staff
